FY3/2025 Financial Highlights

- The Hotel Operation Business outperformed due to an increase in hotel revenue driven primarily by capturing rising inbound demand with both net sales and profits further exceeding previous forecasts.
- Net profit significantly exceeded the previous forecast, mainly due to recognition of deferred tax assets in light of recent strong performance trends.

Consolidated Unit: Million yen	FY3/2025			Forecast (Announced on December 27, 2024)	Change
	Domestic	Overseas	Total		Amount	%

FY3/2025 Operating Income Change Analysis

- FY3/2024 recognized a gain on sales of real estate of approximately JPY 2.0 billion with operating income excluding the gain on sales being approximately JPY 1.34 billion.
- FY3/2025 operating income increased approximately 2.1 times from FY3/2024 despite special factors such as a gain of approximately JPY 700 million in distribution profit related to TK joint investment, inclusion of Minacia's earnings, one-time expenses related to the acquisition of Minacia, and goodwill amortization.

Unit: JPY Million

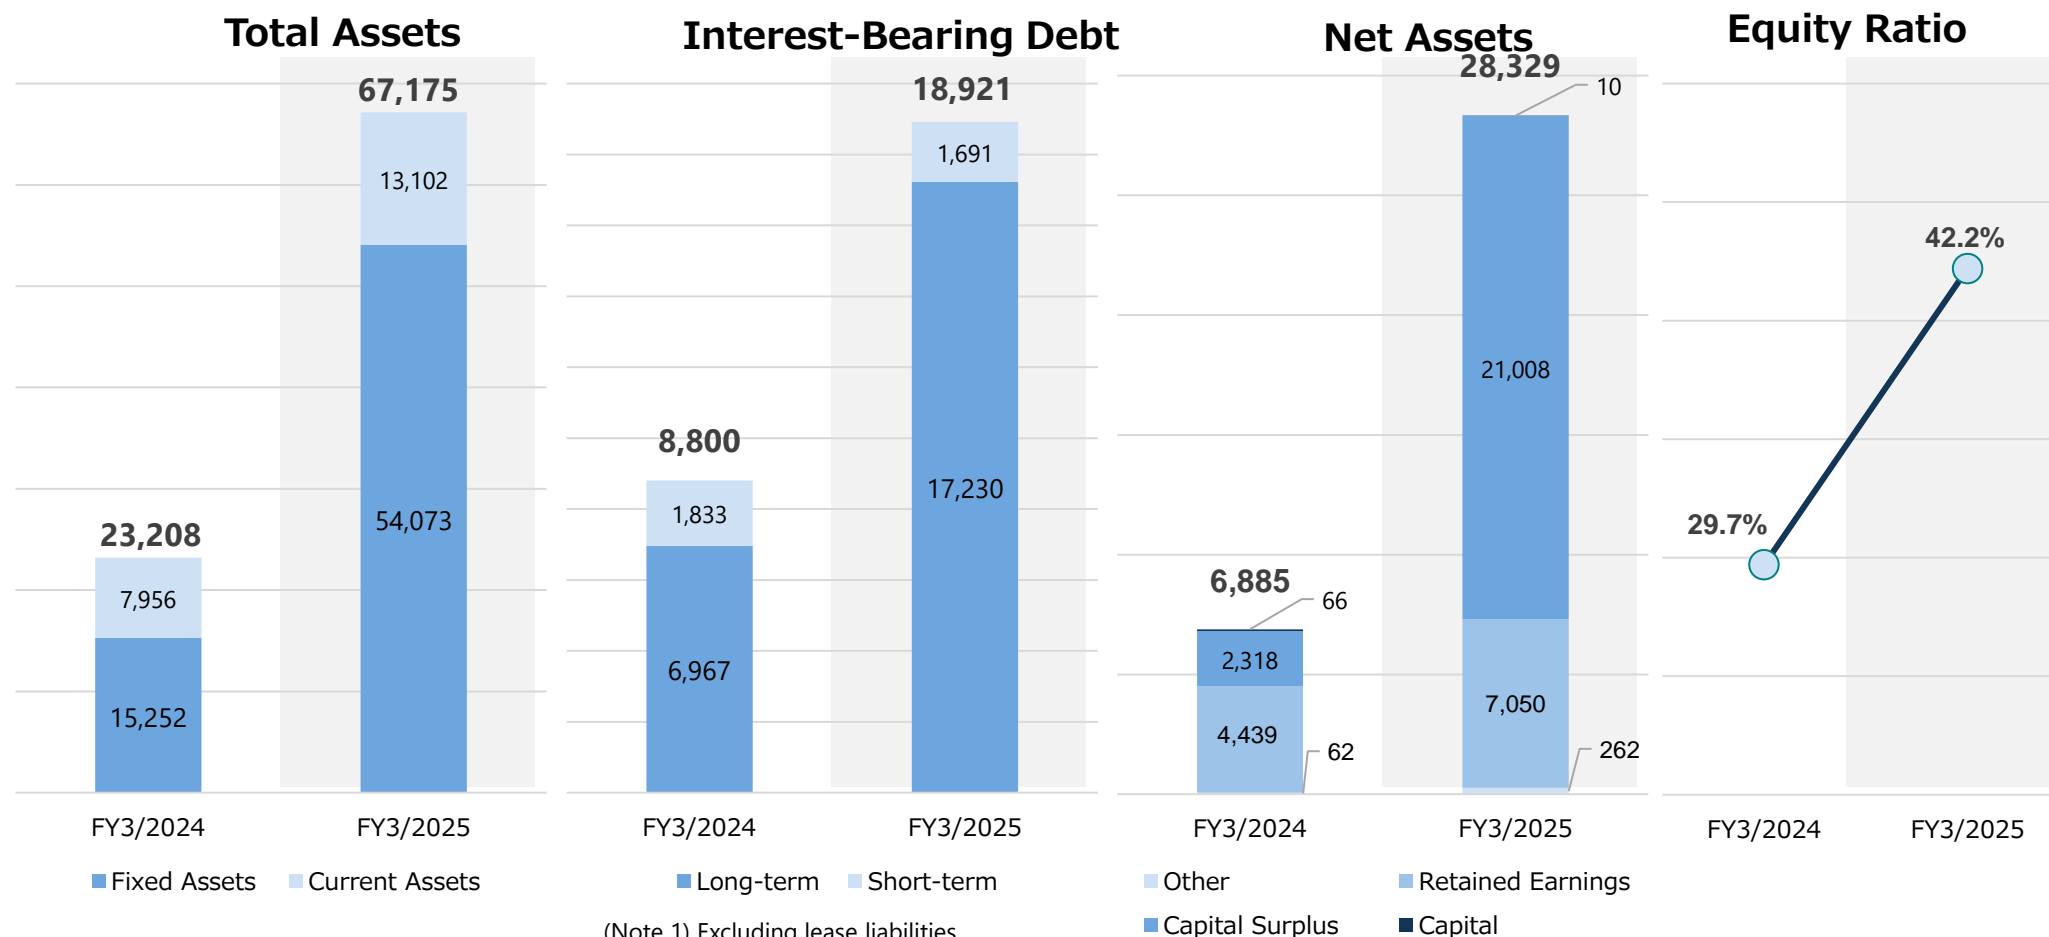

Operating Income Change Analysis

FY3/2025 Balance Sheet Continues Improvement

- Despite an increase in interest-bearing debt due to JPY 10 billion syndicated loan to fund part of the acquisition cost of Minacia, significant improvement in the equity ratio due to an increase in net assets.

Unit: JPY Million

(Note 1) Excluding lease liabilities
 (Note 2) Maturity of long-term debt is more than one year

Management Integration with Minacia

- Accelerating the Integration

- Management Integration with Minacia, a hotel management company that operates limited service hotels in December 2024
- Rapid post-merger integration (PMI) to promptly maximize the benefits of the integration

1

Maximize revenues of operating hotels by implementing precise sales measures and enhanced brand recognition through marketing, sales, and revenue management practices that leverage the chain networks of both companies.

2

Aiming to become an industry-leading operating company by sharing operational know-how, integrating back-office functions between companies, optimizing various operational costs, improving the efficiency of human resource development, and making strategic investments.

3

Aiming for further growth of the operational platform by expanding opportunities to secure new property opening projects by utilizing the networks of both companies and developing new management contracts in collaboration with Star Asia Group.

Measures Implemented and Planned Initiatives

Implemented Organization Restructuring

To realize integration synergies at an early stage and integrate the headquarters functions, organizational restructuring was implemented in December 2024 and May 2025. Completed a transition to a system in which general managers and department heads are responsible for divisions of both companies.

In each department after the restructuring, human resources from both companies will be reallocated to optimize human resources in each function.

Review of Brand Strategy

Reviewing the integration of the hotel brands in order to enhance brand recognitions and strengthen sales marketing.

Progressing a review to develop a loyalty program along with the integration of hotel brands.

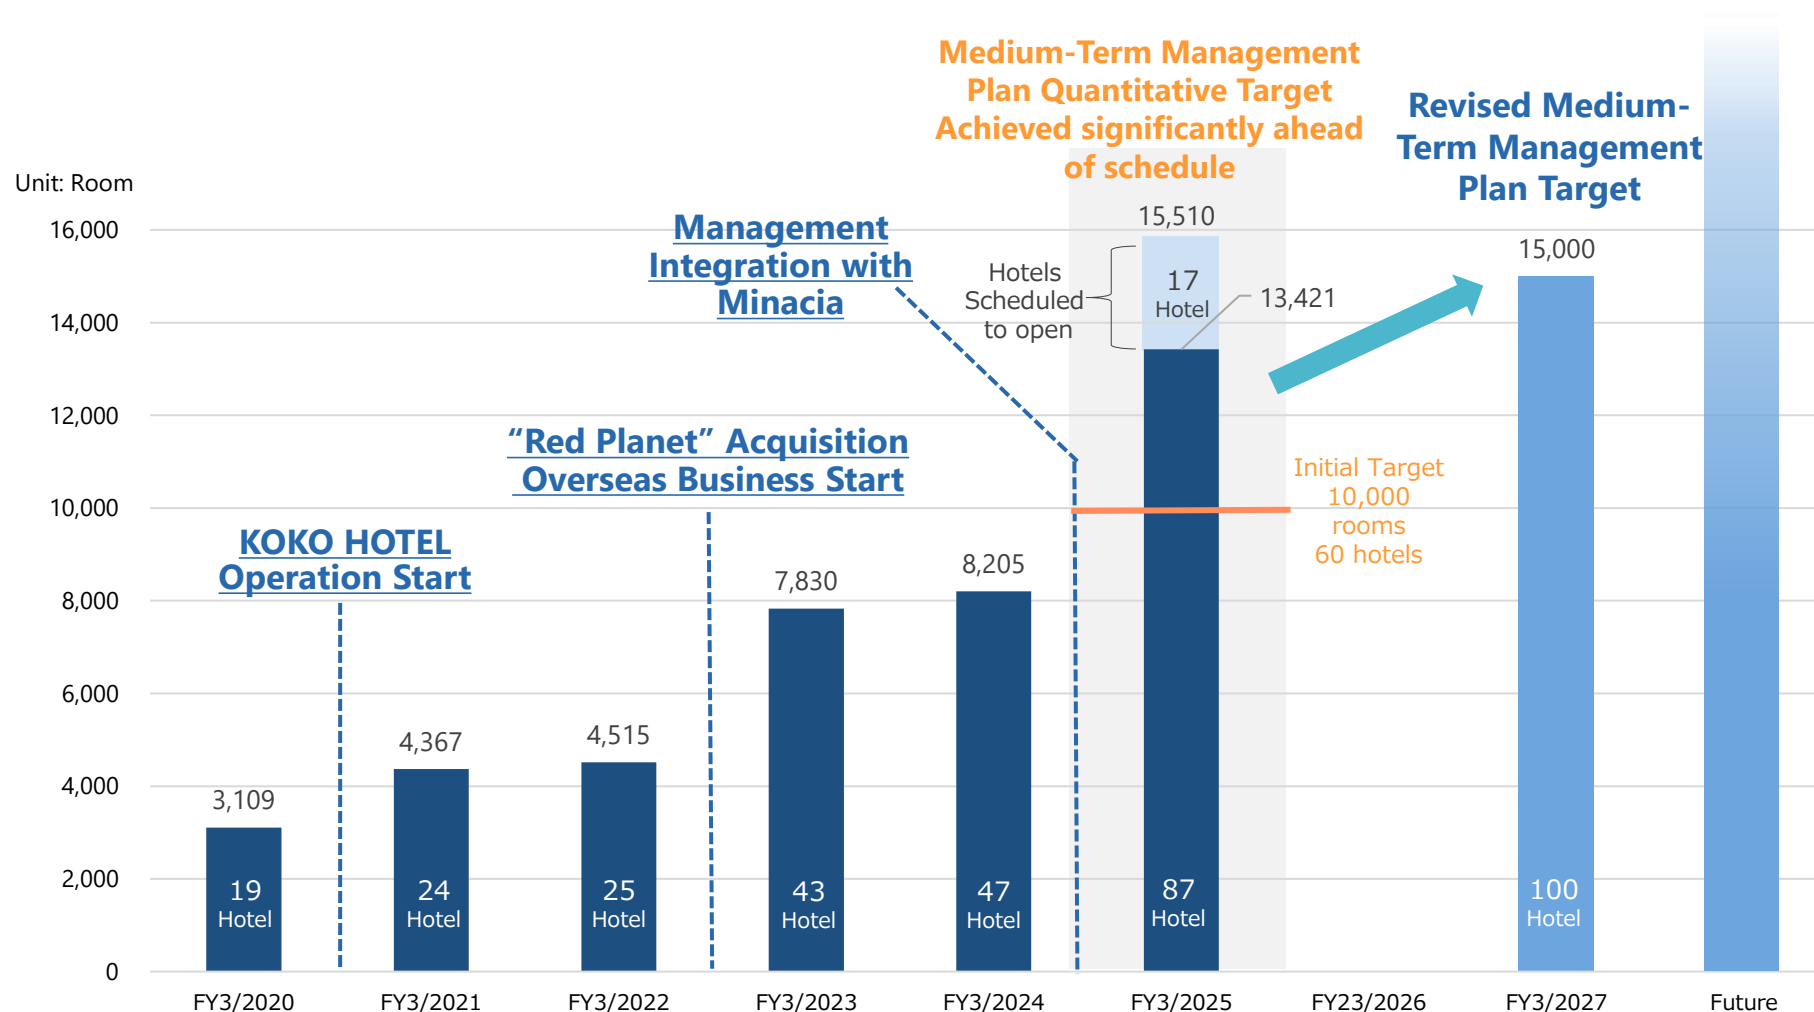

Achieving economies of scale

Cost management: Engaging in terms negotiations through the comparison and analysis of amenity expenses, procurement unit costs, and operational contract amounts.

Sales enhancement: Strengthening collaboration in the same hotel management area through the sharing of market information, sales strategies and measures, human resources, and mutual customer referrals.

Drastic Operating Platform Expansion

- Management Integration with Minacia increased the number of operating hotels by approximately 1.8 times and the number of operating rooms by approximately 1.6 times compared to FY3/2024.
- We are achieving new projects at a faster-than-expected pace, already acquiring 16 new hotel operations with a total 1,673 rooms, against the Medium-Term Management Plan target of 100 hotels and 15,000 rooms.
- KOKO HOTEL Residence Kyoto Nijo Castle, a fourth hotel in Kyoto, opened in December 2024.

Operating Platform Expansion- Domestic

- Expansion of operating platform in major metropolitan areas where inbound demand is growing and regional diversification is progressing

104 hotels / 15,351 rooms

Hotel Market Trends:

Total Number of Overnight Guests by Month

- Total number of overnight guests in FY2024 exceeded FY2023 in all months.
- Significant growth in number of inbounds compared to FY2019, before COVID, with the number of Japanese recovering to the same level as FY2019

Unit: Thousand
Person Night

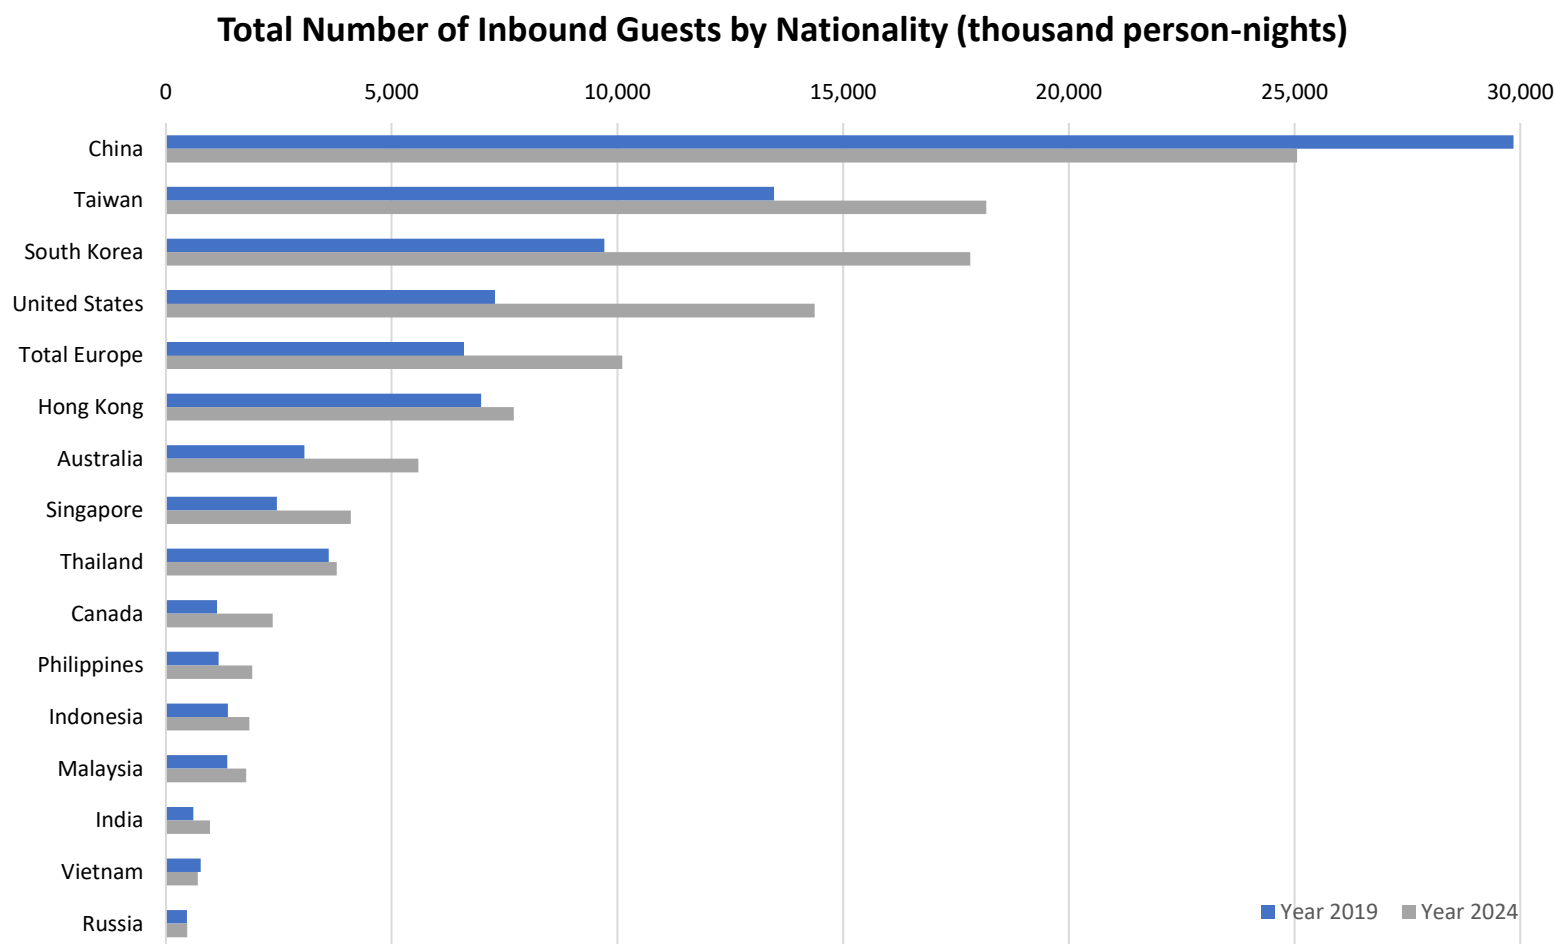

Source: Prepared by the company based on the Japan Tourism Agency's "Lodging Travel Statistics Survey. Figures of January to March of FY3/2019 are January to March 2019.

Hotel Market Trends:

Total Number of Inbound Guests by Nationality

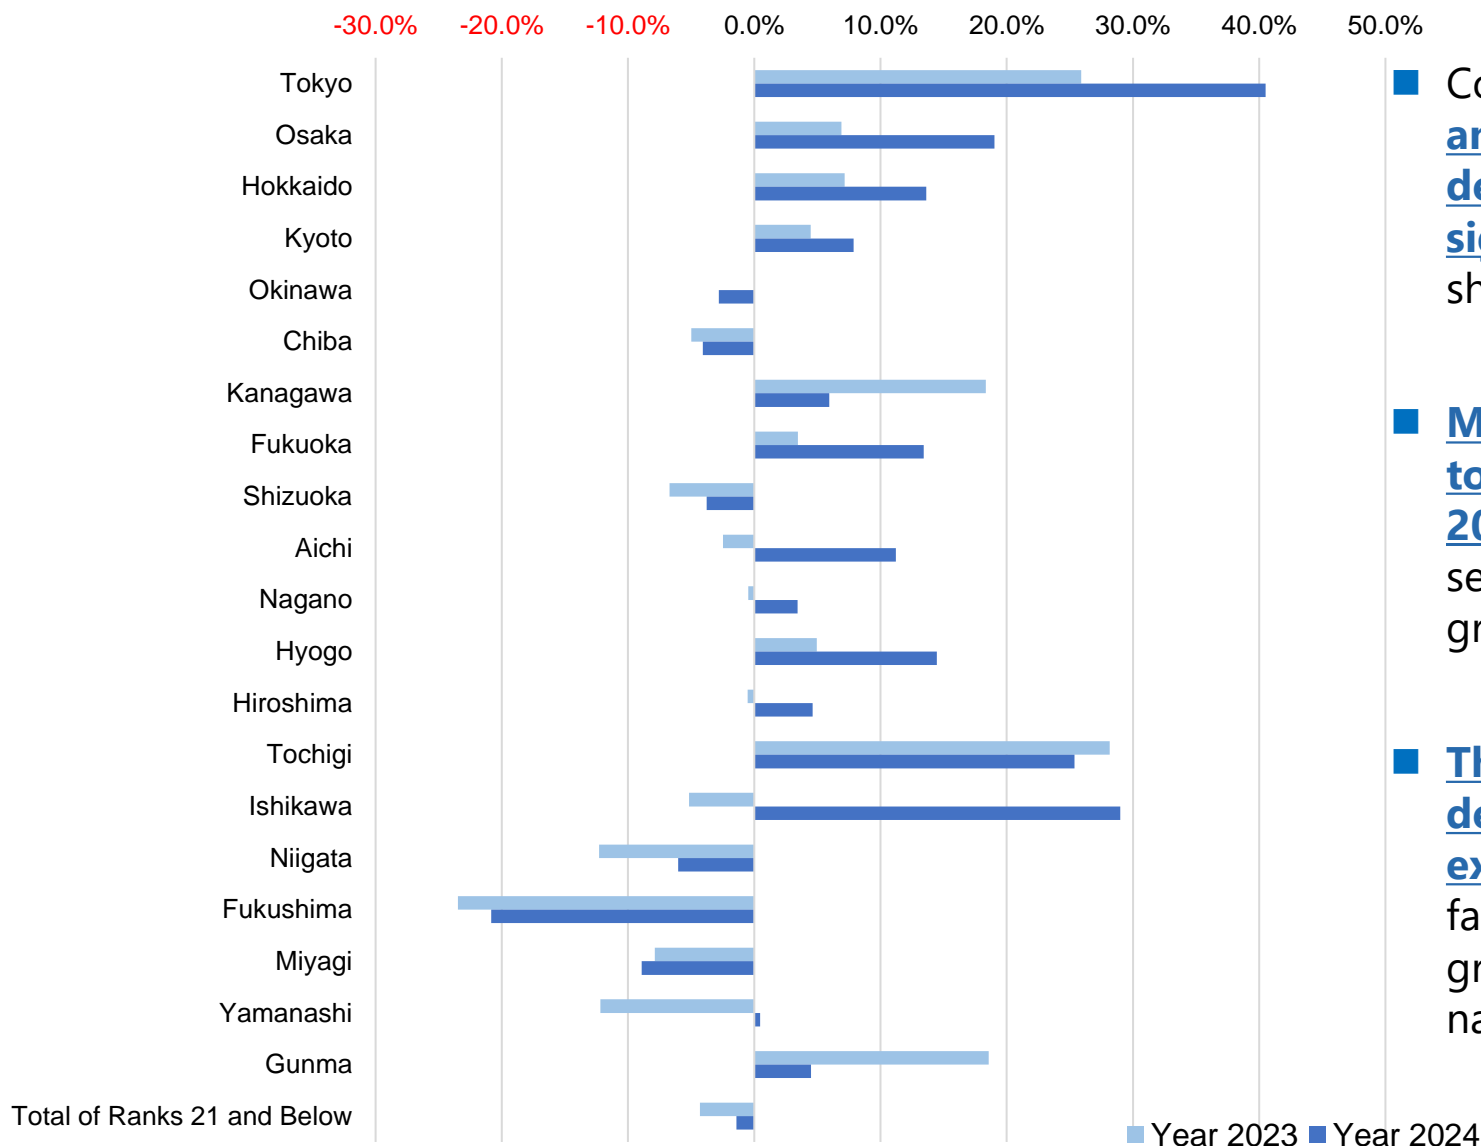

- For all nationalities except China, 2024 was significantly higher than 2019 (before COVID), with growth from both South Korea and the U.S.A. significantly stronger.
- China has also returned to the top position in 2024 and remains an important market. With the relaxation of visa requirements for Chinese nationals (validity period, number of days allowed for stay, etc.) from the end of 2024, accommodation demand from Chinese tourists is expected to grow beyond Pre-COVID level.

Hotel Market Trends:

Total Number of Overnight Guests by Prefecture

2023 and 2024 Top 20 Prefectures in Total Overnight Guests
Change in % compared to 2019

■ Compared to 2019 urban areas and major tourist destinations recorded a significant increase. Growth shown also from 2023.

■ Many rural areas have begun to see increases compared to 2019, with areas still in decline seeing the rate of decrease is gradually narrowing.

■ The inbound accommodation demand in rural areas is expected to grow, providing a favorable trend shift for Polaris group, which operates nationwide.

Further Enhancing Shareholder Return Policy

- Resumption of dividends for the first time in 16 fiscal years, and targeting a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 30%.
- Launched a new hotel discount benefit program that provides shareholders with more opportunities to stay at operated hotels.

Dividend

FY3/2025

Dividend JPY 3 per share

Dividend Policy

As a fair and effective approach to shareholder returns, fundamental policy is to distribute retained earnings in accordance with business performance.

Consolidated Dividend Payout Ratio

Targeting a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 30% as a quantitative target set in the Medium-Term Management Plan.

Shareholder Benefit Program

Objective

To increase the number of shareholders who support the Company over the medium to long term by creating opportunities to stay in the Company's group hotels.

Hotel Discount Coupon

A new shareholder benefit program that provides discount coupons for hotels operated by the Company's group based on the number of shares held.

Subject Hotels

Shareholder benefit program that offers discounted stays at hotels nationwide, including hotels operated by Minacia, which complete the Management Integration.

FY3/2026 Earning Forecast

- The growth driven by the Management Integration with Minacia combined with continued strong inbound demand in the hotel market, and increased revenue from the opening of new properties is expected to result in steady increases in both sales and earnings.
